

Summary of CDRP Decisions

Executive Summary

Enclosed is a chart which provides a summary of decisions of the CIRA Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (CDRP) from the beginning of the CDRP in 2002 until May 1, 2010. The summary was created following a review of all the CDRP decisions on the CIRA website. The chart provides the following information:

- The name of the Complainant and Registrant, and the domain name at issue in each of the decisions
- The dispute number of each of the decisions, along with a link to the decision on the CIRA website
- The particular Service Provider (Resolution Canada or the British Columbia International Commercial Arbitration Centre) which handled the dispute
- Whether a response was filed by the Registrant in each of the cases
- The number of panellists which presided over each case
- The outcome of the decision (e.g. whether the domain name was transferred to the Complainant, or whether the complaint was dismissed)
- The date of the decision.

As of May 1, 2010, there have been 149 decisions. A breakdown of the number of decisions by year, as compared with the approximate total number of dot-ca domain name registrations that year, is set out as follows:

Year	Number of CDRP cases	Running total of CDRP cases	Approximate total number of dot-ca domain names	Approximate number of Disputes per 100,000 dot-ca domain names
2002	3	3	320,653	0.935
2003	10	13	389,081	3.341
2004	9	22	482,759	4.557
2005	26	48	627,444	7.650
2006	21	69	783,206	8.810
2007	21	90	954,372	9.430
2008	30	120	1,152,209	10.415
2009	23	143	1,336,945	10.696
2010	6	149	1,433,435	10.395

One decision out of the 149 decisions dealt with a costs order against the Complainant; the only such order against a Complainant. Of the remaining 148 decisions:

- The domain name was transferred in 116 decisions (approximately 78%). The complaint was dismissed in 32 decisions (approximately 22%).
- A three member panel was involved in 67 decisions (approximately 45%). A one member panel was involved in 81 decisions (approximately 55%).
- The Registrant failed to file a response in 92 of the cases (approximately 62%). In the 92 cases where a Registrant failed to file a response, the Complaint elected to proceed with a one member panel in 81 of the cases (approximately 88%). The Complaint elected to maintain the three member panel in 11 of the cases (approximately 12%).
- 93 decisions (approximately 63%) were handled by BCICAC. 55 decisions (approximately 37%) were handled by Resolution Canada.
