

Request for Disclosure of Registrant Information - Rules and Procedures

Version 1.8 (April 4, 2022)

Background

These Rules and Procedures are implemented pursuant to CIRA's Privacy Policy, to provide the process for certain persons to request the disclosure, under certain limited and specified circumstances, of certain specific information of Registrants that is not publicly available through CIRA's WHOIS search tool.

Except as expressly specified herein or in the Policy, any other request for disclosure of information of Registrants must be by way of an order, ruling, decision, subpoena, warrant, or judgment.

These Rules and Procedures outline:

- What specific information of Registrants may be disclosed under these Rules and Procedures, pursuant to a request for disclosure;
- Who may request such information be disclosed by CIRA, pursuant to these Rules and Procedures ("Requestors"); and
- What express requirements the Requestors must meet, before CIRA will consider disclosure of information, pursuant to a request.

All capitalized terms used herein but not defined, shall have the meanings as set out in CIRA's Registrant Agreement or Registrar Agreement.

Rules and Procedures

1. Information Subject to Disclosure.

These Rules and Procedures provide for the potential disclosure of the following information of Registrants, as found in the CIRA Registry:

- a. The name of the Registrant;
- b. The postal address and email address of the Registrant (if available);
- c. The name of the Registrant's Administrative Contact and Technical Contact; and
- d. The postal address and email address of the Registrant's Administrative Contact and Technical Contact;

(collectively, "Information").

CIRA will not disclose any other information under these Rules and Procedures.

2. Who May Request Disclosure of Information. Requestors must be a person who complies with all of the obligations of Section 3 below.

3. Requirements. To be able to request Information, a Requestor must meet all of the following requirements:

- a) The Information is not publicly available through CIRA's WHOIS search tool.
- b) The Requestor must have a current, good faith Dispute with a Registrant. For purposes of these Rules and Procedures, "Dispute" means that a Requestor reasonably believes in good faith that a Registrant's domain name and/or its content:
 - i. infringes Requestor's Canadian: (i) registered trademark, (ii) registered copyright, or (iii) issued patent;
 - ii. infringes Requestor's Canadian registered (Federal or Provincial) corporate, business or trade name; or
 - iii. is making use of the Requestor's personal information without their knowledge or consent to pass off as or impersonate them in order to commit a crime (such as fraud, theft or forgery), to procure money, credit, loans, goods or services without authorization. (Identity Theft)

Nothing else shall constitute a Dispute hereunder.

- c) The Requestor or their authorized representative must provide such supporting documentation regarding the applicable Dispute as may be required by CIRA, from time to time (the "Supporting Documentation").
- d) The Requestor or their authorized representative must be requesting the Information only in order to try and resolve the Dispute, and the Information, if provided, may not be used (in whole or in part) for any other reason.
- e) The Requestor or their authorized representative must have both: (a) attempted to send a message regarding the Dispute to the Registrant through the Interested Party Contact Procedure (accessible on the CIRA website), no less than 14 calendar days prior to this request; and (b) was not able to resolve the Dispute through this mechanism. Communications through other means, or regarding other matters, do not satisfy this requirement.
- f) The request for the Information of the Registrant must be in the applicable form as specified by CIRA from time to time. The form must be: (i) accurately and fully completed; (ii) signed by the Requestor or their appointed representative, certifying full compliance with the requirements of these Rules and Procedures and that the information in the form is truthful and correct; and (iii) the original sent by postal mail, courier or delivered in person to the address specified in the form.
- g) The form must be accompanied by the applicable Supporting Documentation.

4. CIRA Response. CIRA will respond to the request as quickly as possible after receipt of a form. CIRA reserves the right not to respond to a request, or to refuse a request where the Requestor did not, or CIRA believes may not, fully comply with all of the requirements of these Rules and Procedures.

5. Notice to Registrant. If CIRA approves a request hereunder, CIRA shall, unless prohibited by law, not less than 30 and not more than 60 days after disclosure of the Information, use reasonable efforts to send an email to the Administrative Contact of the Registrant indicating: (a) that CIRA has disclosed the Information; and (b) the name of the Requestor to whom CIRA has disclosed the Information.
